P.C.

After hearing the matter for sometime, the learned Counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the petition with liberty to raise the disputes involved in this petition before an appropriate forum under the Industrial Disputes Act, in accordance with law.

2. Allowed to withdraw. In case the petitioner takes recourse to the remedies provided by the Industrial Disputes Act, having regard to the importance of the occupation of the members of the petitioner and the circumstances of their employment, we direct that the conciliation shall be completed within a period of three months and the reference be made within a period of three months thereafter, if necessary. We expect the Industrial Tribunal to deal with the matter as expeditiously as possible.
